Enjoy the rhythm of this poem.

Puppy and I

I met a Man as I went walking;
We got talking,
Man and I.

‘Where are you going to, Man?’ I said
(I said to the Man as he went by).
‘Down to the village to get some bread.

Will you come with me?’ ‘No, not I.’

I met a Horse as I went walking;
We got talking,
Horse and I.

‘Where are you going to, Horse, today?’
(I said to the Horse as he went by).
‘Down to the village to get some hay.
Will you come with me?’ ‘No, not I.’

I met a Puppy as I went walking;
We got talking,
Puppy and I.

‘Where are you going this fine day?’
(I said to the Puppy as he went by).
‘Up in the hills to roll and play.’
‘I’ll come with you, Puppy,’ said I.

LITTLE TIGER, BIG TIGER

There was a mother tiger and her small tiger cub. They lived near a river in a shady jungle. When the sky was dark, the mother tiger hunted for deer and pig. The tiger cub stayed close by his mother's side.

When the Langur monkey saw her, he called a loud, harsh call: "Watch out! A tiger is coming!" The sambhar deer bellowed, the kakar deer barked, and sometimes the game got away. She hunted then for jungle fowl, for pheasant and for frog, or went to the river for fish. But she did not hunt every night.

If the moon was bright, the mother tiger lay down and waited for the dawn. She twitched the tip of her tail, and the tiger cub pounced on her tail again and again.

If he went too far away, the mother tiger called him with a low, quiet grunt. The tiger cub came back, but he did not like to stay near his mother in the jungle at night.

One night the mother tiger was tired and closed her eyes. The tiger cub saw a tiny frog, hopping along the ground. The tiger cub pounced, but the frog hopped away. He chased the frog and caught it, and turned to show his mother. But she was not in sight. Instead he saw a tiger, bigger than his mother, near him in the jungle.

The tiger's green eyes glistened as he watched the tiger cub. The tiger cub was frightened. He could not hide or run. He let the frog hop away. The tiger crept up closer to the little tiger cub.

But a roar filled the jungle, the roar of the mother tiger! She faced the other tiger and he went away. The mother tiger liked to roar, a loud, big tiger roar, to tell all the other animals in the jungle that she was there. All the other animals in the jungle kept far, far away.

The tiger cub also liked to roar, a loud tiger-cub roar, to tell all the other animals in the jungle that he was there.

But all the other animals in the jungle were not afraid at all and none of them ran away.

But, there came a year when the small tiger cub was a full-grown tiger. He walked for miles alone, hunting for game at night. When he roared to tell all the other animals in the jungle that he was there, all the other animals in the jungle kept far, far away. And the great big tiger that had been a small tiger cub, hearing his own loud roar, smiled to himself a great big tiger smile.

THEMES

- Pets, animal homes and animal friends
- The importance of animals in our lives

SUGGESTIONS FOR CLASSROOM TEACHING

- Read the poem aloud. Let the children appreciate its rhythm.
- Encourage children to guess the meanings of difficult words, before you explain.
- Talk to the children about the different kinds of pets/animals they may have — a dog, goat, cow etc. Let them tell the class how they feed and keep them clean and healthy. They can talk about their love for their pets. Also talk of the emotional bonding between animals and their young ones.
- Discuss animals of the jungle and what they eat, where they live etc. Also talk about different animal homes.
- While teaching this Unit you must emphasise the importance of showing care and respect to all animals big or small, domestic or wild. Children should understand how important it is to protect all animals.
- You can discuss with them the decreasing number of tigers and other wild animals because of hunting and killing. Talk of a world where there may be no animals in the future.
- Ask children to draw and paint different animal masks out of thick paper for the role-play activity.
- Encourage the children to watch animal-based programmes on television. Let them talk about these in the class.
- Ask the children to draw their favourite animals or a scene from one of their favourite stories about animals.
- Encourage the children to tell stories about animals as they have heard from their elders.
