Why does Velu find them strange?

Answer:

Velu has come from a village where huts were made out of mud and palm leaves. Here the building material was very different; Velu found it very strange.

Question 3:

What sort of things did Jaya and children like her collect and what did they do with those things?

Answer:

Jaya and children like her collected recyclable items like paper, plastic, glass etc. These items were sold to a trader named as Jam Nagar Jaggu in the story.

Question 3:

Is Velu happy or unhappy to find work? Give a reason for your answer.

Answer:

Velu is certainly unhappy with the type of work he has found as he thinks he did not run away from his village to dig garbage pits. At the same time, he understands that he needs the job and thus takes it.

❖ Exercise

Question 1:

Is Velu a smart boy? Which instances in the text show that he is or isn't?

Answer:

Velu is certainly a smart boy. In the beginning, he was reluctant to talk to a strange girl, this is very smart as one should avoid talking too freely with strangers. He later realizes that following the girl is his best chance of survival and takes it. Finally, at the end, even though he doesn't like the type of work he was getting but he chose to stick to it till finding a better job.

Question 2:

Do you think Jaya is a brave and sensitive child with a sense of humour? Find instances of her courage, kind nature and humour in the text.

Answer:

Jaya is brave as she was able to sustain herself without any elders to take care of herself; this takes a big deal of courage. Jaya is sensitive as she understood the condition of Velu and offered her help even without Velu asking for it. Her humour is visible when she takes jibes at Velu for walking too slow while crossing the road.

Question 3:

What one throws away as waste may be valuable to others. Do you find this sentence meaningful in the context of this story? How?

Answer:

The idea of recycling has been established during the course of the story. The children in the story were picking up items from the trash thrown by people. These items are waste for the people who have thrown them but the rag pickers make a living out of these, making them valuable in their context.
