

S.A. 1 : WORKSHEET 2013-14

CLASS : X

SUBJECT: GEOGRAPHY

---

1. Why is resource planning needed in India? Explain with proper examples.
2. What was the aim of agenda 21?
3. State the diverse relief features of India and mention their significance?
4. What are the ways to solve the problems of land degradation?
5. What are the areas of alluvial soils and also write its significance.
6. What are the salient features of black soils?
7. What steps can be taken to control soil erosion in the hilly areas and western desert?
8. How have large scale development projects contributed to the loss of forests? Give examples.
9. Explain that the loss of forests and wildlife is correlated with the loss of cultural diversity.
10. What steps have been taken to protect forests and wildlife by govt.?
11. What are the threats to tiger population and what steps have been taken to protect this species?
12. Describe the classification of forests in India.
13. Write the features of Joint Forest Management (JFM) programme.
14. Why are multipurpose projects called temples of modern India?
15. Give three examples of hydraulic structures in India developed in ancient times.

16. Explain the reasons responsible for the increasing scarcity of water in India.
17. Describe how rain water harvesting in semi-arid region of Rajasthan is carried out.
18. What are the problems associated with the construction of large dams? Give examples in support of your answer.
19. Distinguish between National and International resources.
20. Describe the main features of Indian agriculture.
21. 'Agriculture and Industry are complementary to each other'. Justify the statement.
22. Explain the main features of subsistence farming in India.
23. What factors are responsible for increasing number of suicides among the Indian farmers?
24. Name two most important beverage crops grown in India. Write the favourable conditions for their growth and also major producing states.
25. What are the concerted efforts made to modernize agriculture by the government of India?

***** ----- ***** ----- *****