

Class: VII - WORK SHEET

Sub:- Geography

Chapter – 2 – Inside our Earth

Fill in the blanks

1. The upper most layer over the earth's surface is _____.
2. The oceanic crust mainly consists of _____ & _____.
3. Mantle which extends up to the depth of _____ km.
4. The deepest mine in the world is in _____.
5. The continental mass mainly consist of _____ and _____.

Choose the correct answers from the brackets

1. The core is rich in nickel and iron and is therefore also called the _____.
(Nife, Sima , Niro)
2. The molten rock inside the surface of the earth is called _____.
(Igneous rock , sedimentary rock, metamorphic rock)
3. Sedimentary rocks contains _____.
(magma, fossils, air)

Answer the following questions

(1 Mark)

1. What are fossils?

2. What are sediments?

3. Distinguish between the following:

(2 Marks)

- a. Igneous and Sedimentary rocks.

b. Mantle and core

Activity: Draw and label the 'interior of the Earth'.