

Worksheet

The Sentence

Q.1. Look at the following sentences. Write 'A' for assertive, T' for Interrogative, 'E' for exclamatory and 'Im' for Imperative.

- (i) Today is Babita's birthday _____.
- (ii) Babita is eating a cake. _____.
- (iii) These flowers are colourful. _____.
- (iv) Why were you late to work? _____.
- (v) Please sit down.

Q.2. Write whether the sentence fragment is missing a subject or a predicate, and complete the sentences.

- (i) _____ is my role model.
- (ii) Chota Bheem, the cartoon character, _____.
- (iii) Mr. Singh _____.
- (iv) _____ went to the park.
- (v) My favourite food _____.
- (vi) _____ is my favourite musician.
- (vii) My favourite game _____.
- (viii) _____ is my favourite movie.

Q.3. Circle the subjects and underline the predicates.

- (i) I went to Great America.
- (ii) We should go to the movies.
- (iii) She knows how to make jewelry.
- (iv) We play basketball every Tuesday.
- (v) My pencil broke into pieces.
- (vi) Sahil told me to read.
- (vii) Alok stayed up late doing his homework.
- (viii) Homework makes me happy.
- (ix) I put my name on top of the paper.
- (x) The Cheetah is the fastest land animal.

Q.4. Change each assertive sentence into an interrogative sentence. The first one has been done for you.

- (i) Parrot is a beautiful bird. Is Parrot a beautiful bird?
- (ii) Ganguli is a fine batsman. _____
- (iii) The distance between India and Japan is 8000 kms. _____
- (iv) I am writing a letter. _____

(v) The judge is hearing the case tomorrow. _____

(vi) We are waiting for the guests. _____

Q.5. Change the exclamatory sentences into assertive sentences. The first one has been done for you.

(i) How wisely he planned!

He planned very wisely.

(ii) How lovely her face is!

(iii) What a certain matter it is!

(iv) How confusing the project was!

(v) What a terrible relationship he developed!

(vi) What an excellent photograph he got!

(vii) How lovely the park is!

(viii) What a marvelous age we live in!