

Class: IV-

Subject: Science

Ch 8: Adaptations-How Plants Survive

Name _____

Date:

Q1. One word answers:

1. The plants that grow on land are known as _____
2. The plants that grow in water are known as _____
3. The percent of the earth's surface covered with water is _____
4. The hollow stems of lotus are called _____
5. Several branches is a feature of trees in _____ 6. Thorns on plants is a feature of trees in _____
7. Plants which have leaves almost all round the year are called _____
8. Places where the soil is very sticky and clayey are called _____
9. Plants like pitcher plant that trap insects are known as _____
10. The plants which do not contain chlorophyll and absorb food from other dead plants and animals are called _____
11. Tape grass and pondweed are the examples of _____ 12. Plants whose stems are light and spongy in water are called _____

Q2. Give 2 examples of each:

a) Plants on mountains

b) Plants in plains

c) Plants in desert

d) Plants in areas of heavy rainfall

e) Fixed aquatic plants

f) Underwater plants

g) Insectivorous plants

h) Non-green plants

Q3. Write 3 uses of plants in daily life and paste pictures or things related to them:

