

Read the passage and answer the questions that follow.

Once there was a Mother Sheep and her Lamb who lived happily in the pen on a farm. Mother Sheep and her Lamb never left the farm. Little Lamb rolled in the grass and played all day with the calves. Sheru, the sheep dog was not happy with the Lamb and would tell him to stay in the pen close to his mother. But Lamb would not listen. One day when the cows were grazing peacefully and the Lamb was busy playing with the calves, a wolf slipped into the farm. Mother Sheep noticed wolf and ran towards the Lamb and the calves. Mother Sheep took a deep breath, 'baa... baa... baa!' she bleats. Sheru who was resting heard the bleat and ran barking towards the cows. On hearing the barks of the dog, the wolf got frightened and ran towards the woods. 'That was amazing Mother!' Lamb clapped happily. Mother Sheep turned to the Lamb and said, 'This is your most important lesson, It is always best to stay alert, my child.'

A. Answer the following questions.

Q.1. Where did Mother Sheep and her Lamb live?

Ans. _____

Q.2. Who slipped into the farm one day?

Ans. _____

B. Tick (✓) the correct answer.

1. Lamb loved playing with the

(a) Dog.

(b) Calves.

(c) Cows.

2. Seeing the wolf, the Mother Sheep made a sound of

(a) Moo.

(b) Bark.

(c) Bleat.

3. Another word for 'frightened' is

(a) Scared.

(b) Angry.

(c) Hungry.

C. Draw four pictures to show the sequence of the story.

